Directions for Culture.

Culture in Pots.—Select solid, heavy bulbs and plant as early as possible, using a six or seven inch pot for a single bulb. Fill the pots with a light, rich potting soil, and have the top of the bulb just above the surface, give a good watering and set away in a cool place, covering them with about five inches of sand or coal ashes. In about eight weeks they may be taken to the room in which they are to flower. By bringing in a few pots at a time about two weeks apart a succession of bloom may be had.

Glass Culture.—Single Hyacinths do better than double in glasses, as they produce a much larger and more showy truss. Place the bulb in the glass, which should be filled with water so it touches the bottom of the bulb, put it in a close box in a cool place or on a shelf in the dark part of the cellar, for from six to eight weeks, changing the water every ten days or two weeks, then remove them to the light. If then placed in a cool room they will produce very fine spikes and remain in bloom a long time. A small piece of charcoal in the water is beneficial.

Planting in the Open Ground.—October and November is the proper time, but they can be set out any time as long as the ground is open and the bulbs remain sound. The best compost for their culture is the following: one-third river or sea sand, one-third well-rotted cow manure, and one-third good garden mould. The beds composed of the above compost should be well dug to a depth of fourteen inches, and raised from two to four inches above the level of the walks. The bulbs should be planted evenly about six inches deep (to the bottom of the bulbs) and from five to six inches apart; if planted at uneven depths they will not bloom at the same time, but irregularly. Care must be taken not to press the earth too firmly around and over the bulbs, setting each bulb in a handful of clean sand, which insures drainage.

In making up the following list of varieties we have selected only such sorts as have proven to be the best. These are the cream of the Holland market. Extra sized roots produce perfectly shaped flowers of the clearest and most distinct colors. If a selection is made of the colors as below, a succession of bloom is also obtained; these varieties flower with very little intervention. In purchasing these Selected Named Bulbs the customer gets the finest spikes of perfect blooms that cannot be gotten from a common grade of mixed Hyacinths. For pot or glass culture the Single kinds will be found to excel the Double in profusion of flower.

SELECTED HYACINTHS
For Bedding and Forcing.
These are grown specially for our trade and may not be confounded with the so-called Mixed Hyacinths sold by some, containing the cullings of the trade, immature, undersized bulbs. For massing in borders or design work, or for forcing, they are well adapted. Our mixture is composed of bulbs which are all nearly of the same height and flower simultaneously.

Single and Double Hyacinths.
Early Roman Hyacinths.

WHITE FRENCH.

For forcing purposes the Roman Hyacinth has no peer. If planted early in September and gently forced, will bloom in October, or its flowering may be deferred until Christmas by keeping it in a cool place. One bulb throws up a number of spikes, and the flowers are deliciously scented.

INGLE DARK ROSE ROMANS.

This pretty form of Hyacinth much resembles the well-known White French Hyacinths, except in color. They come into bloom about ten days later, taking the place of many of the early flowering bulbs long past bloom. Their delicate shades of rose form a pleasing contrast when placed among other flowers and plants. Price, 50c. per doz.; $3.00 per 100.

DOUBLE ROSE PINK ROMANS.

This form of the Hyacinth is similar in appearance to the White Roman, excepting in the flower, which is a very distinct double, exceedingly pretty and effective; stands a long time in water. Price, 50c. per doz.; $3.00 per 100.

INGLE LIGHT BLUE ROMANS.

Delicate, semi-double flowers on stiff stalks, of a pale blue color, very fragrant. Keep a long time when cut and placed in water. Used for forcing and table decoration. Price, 50c. per doz.; $3.00 per 100.

ITALIAN HYACINTHS.

These, like the French Roman Hyacinths, are grown largely for cutting. Flowers single, graceful and fragrant. Hardier than the Romans, and may be planted outside in the fall for early spring cutting.

Single White Italian. Each, 8c.; per doz., 60c.; per 100, $3.00.

MINIATURE OR DUTCH ROMAN HYACINTHS.

Excellent for growing in pots, pans or boxes, blooming freely and early, producing three or four spikes. They may be planted close together either in pans or pots, or in the open ground.

Bulbs under this heading are much smaller than the ordinary Dutch Hyacinths, and are extensively used for forcing. They are more attractive than the French Romans, and when properly forced throw very fine spikes of bloom. They have proved perfectly hardy, slightly protected, and are fine for cutting purposes.

CAPE HYACINTHS.
A beautiful hardy plant, with flower stems 3 to 4 feet high, bearing from 20 to 30 large, pure white, drooping flowers.

Named Hyacinths.

SECOND SIZE BULBS.

For customers not wishing to purchase the first size named bulbs, the following sorts have proven to be the very best. They produce well-shaped, full and compact spikes. It pays well to plant only the named sorts, as they are far superior to the regular separate color quality, which we recommend for outside planting.

Single Pink. Gigantea; Chas. Dickens; Baron V. Thuyll.

Single Red. Gen'l Pelissier; Rob. Stelger; Gertrude.

Single White. Alba Superbissima; La Grandesse; Baron V. Thuyll; Mme. Van der Hoop.

Single Blue. Chas. Dickens, light; Baron V. Thuyll, dark; Czar Peter, light; King of the Blues, dark.

Price, $1.00 per doz.; $5.50 per 100; $60.00 per 1000.
In beauty of form and brilliancy of color, the Tulip casts all other spring flowers in the shade; nothing can equal its gorgeous appearance in beds, lines or groups in the spring garden. Nothing is more beautiful than a bed of Tulips in the spring. They are the showiest flower in bloom at that time of year. They should be planted in beds of any design, made of a good portion of loam and manure mixed well with the soil. The distance apart should be about four inches, and should be planted about four inches deep. A covering of long manure or straw for over winter is very beneficial for the bed. Tulips are also excellent for growing in the house; four or five bulbs to six or seven inch pots, or they can be forced in the greenhouse with good results. For forcing, Single Tulips are considered the best, Duc Van Thol varieties being the favorites, as they flower earlier on account of their dwarf habit.

The figures indicating the average height are given before each variety, to aid selection for beds.

Price, 20c. per doz.; $1.00 per 100; $8.00 per 1000. Varieties prefixed by an asterisk (*) are the earliest sorts.
EARLY DOUBLE TULIPS.

The earlier varieties of this class of tulips are admirably adapted for forcing. Many of the other varieties make a fine display when grown in pots, but they should be forced slowly. The later kinds are very effective for bedding, producing a dense mass of gorgeous flowers, which remain in bloom a long time.

Double Tulips are very handsome, especially when planted in separate colors, such as scarlet, white and yellow. A most brilliant display can be had by placing them in square, diamond, or round-shaped beds, and we shall be pleased to name the varieties most suitable for this purpose if so desired. Double Tulips remain longer in bloom than the single varieties, therefore should not be planted together.

Narcissus, or Daffodils.

SINGLE VARIETIES.

These charming, graceful flowers have had a great revival of popularity in the last few years, and are now prime favorites for early blooming in the garden, and are largely forced by florists for winter flowers. No flower better deserves its popularity. Of easy culture, they are equally satisfactory for potting and for the open bed and borders, where their rush-like glaucous foliage and white and yellow flowers are very much admired. For their cultivation the soil should be well-loosened so that the roots have perfect freedom in their growth.

These beautiful flowers love shade and rich soil. They may be planted any time from September to January, in pots or open border and treated in the same manner as hyacinths. Many of the varieties are sweet scented, and valuable for cut flowers in the early spring.

FREESIA

The justly popular Freesias are greatly prized for the delightful fragrance of their delicately colored flowers, which, when cut, will remain in good condition for a long time in water. They are easily grown or forced in a light, sandy soil, in a frame or greenhouse, and are excellent for window culture in winter; one plant will perfume a large room, but not in the persistent manner of a tuberose. The plant has tooth-shaped bulbs and flat, spreading leaves. For the information of all not acquainted with these bulbs, we may say that they are quite small, and produce very large blooms in comparison to their size.

commence flowering in May, and with the various species maintain a continuous and unbroken succession of bloom until autumn. No class of plants, capable of being cultivated out-of-doors, possesses so many charms; their stately habit, rich and varied colored flowers, often deliciously fragrant, and easy culture, render them so distinct from all other hardy plants that no collection, however select, should be without a few of the choicer sorts.

GERBERA JAMESONII.

(The Barberton Daisy.)

A recent introduction from South Africa. This novelty is an evergreen Herbaceous plant, leaves 12 inches long, with long thick roots, but few fibers. The glowing scarlet flowers are borne on strong stalks 12 to 18 inches in length. For months this plant is in a florescent condition, and although it cannot be described as hardy it has stood a few degrees of frost in England, where it was flowered first in 1887. On account of its woody stock root it is a shy propagator. Gerbera Jamesonii was awarded the "Novelty" prize by the Horticultural Society of New York this year. $2.00 each.
FOR FALL SOWING AND FORCING.

SWEET PEAS.
Of late years Sweet Peas have become popular for growing and forcing under glass, and among the newest and most serviceable of varieties for these purposes is "EARLIEST OF ALL." This name speaks for itself and the plant flowering in 10 weeks' time from sowing justifies its use. In type it closely resembles extra early Blanche Ferry, but flowers fully ten days in advance. Attaining only a height of 18 to 24 inches when in full flower, seed can be sown much closer than other varieties and still preclude crowding when in growth. For greenhouse use this is the ideal variety.

Lawn Grass Seed.

WEEBER & DON'S CENTRAL PARK LAWN GRASS.

Our formula for this mixture embraces all the most desirable dwarf evergreen grasses which flourish at different seasons, ensuring a permanent verdure. The varieties used are those which form a compact sward, excluding the chances of burning out from excessive heat in summer. The seeds are of the choicest quality, free from obnoxious weeds and foreign substances, thus providing an absolutely clean and velvety lawn. Seed sown in the Fall will produce a fine, luxuriant lawn the following season. We recommend using four bushels of seed to the acre; the thicker the seed is sown the sooner a smooth, perfect lawn will be obtained. One quart of seed will sow a space 15x20 feet.

Price, per quart, 25c.; per peck, $1.25; per bushel (20 lbs.), $4.50.

Lawn Grass for Terraces. Price per quart, 30c.; peck, $1.75; bushel (20 lbs.), $6.00.

Lawn Tennis Mixture. Price per quart, 25c.; peck, $1.25; bushel (20 lbs.), $4.50.

Lawn Grass for Shady Places and Under Trees. Price per quart, 30c.; peck, $2.00; bushel (20 lbs.), $7.00.

French Lawn Grass. Good Mixture. Price per quart, 25c.; peck, $1.00; bushel (15 lbs.), $3.50.

Full directions for making a lawn printed on each box.

Golf Ground Grass Mixture

We recommend the following mixtures as the most suitable to withstand our hot, dry summers:

Special Mixtures for Golf Courses. Price per bushel, $2.50.

Special Mixture for Golf Links. Price, per bushel, $3.50.

Special Mixture for Putting Greens. Price, per quart, 25c.; peck, $1.50; per bushel, $5.00.
We have made Farm Seeds a Specialty for many years, during which we have carefully studied the various properties of the different grasses. We have now prepared a mixture of Perennial varieties bound to give satisfactory results. While the cost is greater than for Timothy and Clover, the grower should recollect that the mixture we sell will last three or four times longer than the other. Besides, the chances of disappointment are minimized, because in case of disadvantageous weather, some of the varieties are bound to "catch"—total failure is impossible, whereas with Timothy, if the environments and conditions be not congenial, the failure is absolute, and the second preparation of the soil to again sow Timothy would more than equal the difference in the cost between the Grasses and Timothy. If the seed be sown in Autumn, the Clover should go in in Spring to preclude chances of Winter killing.

CHAPTER 1
A FEW DIRECTIONS FOR FORMING MUSHROOM BEDS.

THE Mushroom is one of the most profitable crops grown, especially in the vicinity of large cities, where the demand, at all seasons, is far in excess of the supply.

The best time for making mushroom beds is in August and September, as in the fall months the natural heat is sufficient to cause the spawn to germinate freely, and the beds made then ought to bear well before and up to Christmas. Mushrooms can be grown in sheds, cellars, caves, under benches in greenhouses, and in regular mushroom houses.

In preparing the materials, collect sufficient fresh horse droppings to form the desired size of bed, spreading them out in an airy shed to dry, and turning them frequently. When in a proper state as to dryness, which will soon be learned by experience, make these into a bed from nine inches to one foot thick, beating them firmly together. If the droppings have been properly prepared, gentle fermentation will soon commence, and when the temperature of the bed is from 75° to 80°, with no danger of it rising higher, put in the spawn. This is done by making shallow holes, about nine inches apart, inserting pieces of spawn about the size of a hen's egg, and covering with the dung, pressing this closely about the spawn. It is of the greatest importance that the temperature of the bed should not decline below 75°; nor rise above 80° for a month after spawning. Within a fortnight after putting in the spawn cover the bed about two inches thick with good mellow, moist soil, making this firm and if under this a covering one or two inches thick of cow dung, in about the same condition in moisture as the soil, can be afforded, this will cause the bed to last longer, and also to produce a larger crop than if covered with soil only. The most suitable temperature for beds in bearing is 50° to 55°, and as a high temperature causes the mushrooms to come small, this should be avoided. Watering beds in bearing often causes the small mushrooms to damp off; therefore, water only when the bed ceases to be productive, and then use the water about the same temperature as the bed.

Be sure that the Mushroom Spawn you buy is good. Half of the failures can be traced to the use of cheap, worthless Spawn.
